 INTERVIEW & PHOTO OPPORTUNITIES ***

Tales from Leicestershire's wonderful watery past will be brought to life by some hysterical historical characters on Saturday 24th and Sunday 25th September, in a series of special guided walks for all the family around the picturesque Foxton Locks.

Actors in traditional 19th century costume will paint a colourful picture of life on Leicestershire's canals over the last two centuries in these fascinating and fun-filled tours around one of the county's most popular visitor destinations.

Young and old alike will discover amazing stories from Foxton Locks' past and meet some of the interesting characters that made it what it is today, as they are guided around the famous 'staircase' of locks and the remains of the Foxton Inclined Plane Boatlift – a 19th century feat of engineering that's now a scheduled ancient monument.

The walks start at 11am, 1pm and 3pm on both Saturday and Sunday. Foxton Locks' newly-opened Coffee Stop, situated in the delightful surroundings of Top Lock Cottage, a former lock keeper's cottage, will be serving a range of refreshments after each walk.

Tickets for the special guided tours, which will take approximately an hour, cost £7 for adults, £5 for children, £6 for concessions or £22 for a whole family (two adults and up to three children). Booking is essential – call 01908 302500 for more information and to book.

If you want awe-inspiring countryside views, fascinating history, wonderful wildlife, great food and drink, or just a relaxing day watching canal boats go by, Foxton Locks has it all.
